"COME, YE FAITHFUL, RAISE THE ANTHEM!"

The Words by Job Hupton. 1762-1849.
O. E. 302; N. E. 351.

The Tune "Ephesus," "Unser Herrscher," or "Neander"
from Joachim Neander's "A und N," Bremen, 1680.
O. E. 302; N. E. 351.

The musical score is written for organ accompaniment on a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. It consists of 12 measures. The first measure begins with a repeat sign. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, with the bass clef providing harmonic support. The piece concludes with the text 'A - men.' written above the final two measures.

1. f Come, ye faithful, raise the anthem,
Cleave the skies with shouts of praise;
Sing to Him Who found the ransom,
Ancient of eternal days,
God of God, the Word Incarnate
Whom the Heav'n of Heav'n obeys.

2. mf Ere He raised the lofty mountains,
Form'd the seas, or built the sky,
Love eternal, free, and boundless,
Moved the Lord of Life to die,
Fore-ordain'd the Prince of princes
For the Throne of Calvary.

6. ff Laud and honour to the Father,
Laud and honour to the Son,
Laud and honour to the Spirit,
Ever Three and ever One,
Consubstantial, Co-eternal,
While unending ages run.

For Verse 3. Voices in Unison.

3. There, for us and our re - demp - tion, See Him all His Life - blood pour! There He wins our full sal - va - tion,
