A musical score for voice and piano. The top three staves are in treble clef, B-flat major, and common time. The bottom staff is in bass clef, B-flat major, and common time. The score consists of four systems of music. The first system starts with a piano dynamic (p) and includes lyrics: "gra - ti - a ple". The second system continues with lyrics: "- na, gra - ti - a ple". The third system continues with lyrics: "- ti - a ple". The fourth system starts with a forte dynamic (f) and continues with lyrics: "- na, gra - ti - a ple". The bass staff in the fourth system begins with a dynamic of 8.

Translation

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. Amen.

Editorial Conventions

The nomenclature of the voice-parts follows the Tudor convention.

The prefatory staves at the start of the piece show the original clef, staff signature, mensuration symbol and first note for each voice.

Editorial accidentals are placed above the notes concerned.

Underlay repeat signs are expanded using italic text.

Underlay between square brackets is entirely editorial.

Notes on the Readings of the Sources

The scribe of A, Robert Dow, often altered the underlay of the music he copied in order to provide what he considered to be better word accentuation. Although he did this with good taste, it nevertheless follows that his copies do not always convey what the composers intended. In Ave Maria, his editorial hand is most obvious in the second half of the piece. Bars 49–57 are a repeat of bars 40–48 with the two countertenor parts exchanged. At bar 51 Dow omits B's repeat of the underlay in Ct2 and combines the two minim Bs into a semibreve. However, in the Ct1 at bar 42 he failed to make the same adjustment. Here his Ct1 matches B's Ct2 in bar 51, revealing this to be the correct reading for both voices. At bars 46–48 Dow's Ct1 has no underlay and he combines the two minim Fs in bar 47 into a semibreve. Yet in the parallel passage in the Ct2 at bars 55–57, while he again omits the underlay, he retains the two minim Fs, revealing that the reading in B is correct. In bar 55 he wrote the syllable -i below the E^b in Ct2 (thus agreeing with B), but changed his mind, cancelled it and omitted the ensuing repetition of fructus ventris tu-. Other repeated notes without underlay in A also suggest that text has been expunged from this source rather than added to B. In the opening bars of the Ct2, Dow omits the repeat of Ave Maria and combines the two semibreves in bar 4 into a single breve. This suggests that, in Ct1, Dow's tied breves in bars 5–6 may well be the result of combining two, or even three, notes of the same pitch; in this edition they have been separated into two breves.

Source B, the only survivor from a set of five or six partbooks, is a much more reliable source. It has been used as the copy text for the Ct2 and A's readings for the other voices amended as necessary to reconstruct a conjectural reading of the lost partbooks of B.

In each section below the readings are listed by source. Each reference to a bar or group of bars is separated by an oblique stroke and multiple readings in the same voice are separated by a comma. The order within each entry is: (1) bar number(s); (2) voice; (3) reading of the source, with any subsequent bars number for extended readings in brackets. Pitches are given in capital letters, preceded by a number if necessary, e.g. ¹G = first note G in the bar.
