READER: (music under) And God saw that the wickedness of man was very great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of man were only evil continually. And it repented the Lord that he had made man on earth, and it grieved him at his heart. And the Lord said I will destroy many whom I have created on the face of the earth; both man and beast, and the creeping things and the fowl of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them. The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord. And God said unto Noah: Make thee an Ark of gopher wood.

Thus Did Noah

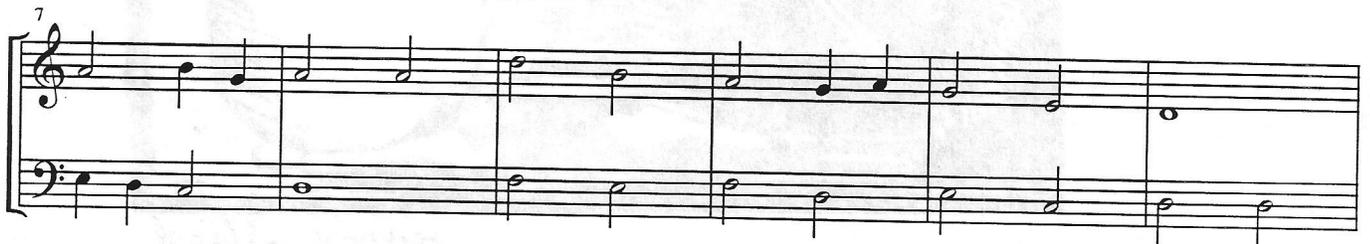

READER: Thus did Noah, according to all that God commanded him, so did he. And God said unto Noah: Behold I, even I, do bring a flood of water upon the earth to destroy all flesh wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and everything that is in the world shall die. But with thee will I establish my covenant, and thou shalt come into the Ark, thou, they sons and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee. And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the Ark, to keep them alive with thee. They shall be male and female. Of fowl after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee to keep them alive. For yet seven days and I will cause it to rain upon the earth, full forty days and forty nights. Then will the fountains of the deep well up, and the waters prevail exceedingly upon the face of the earth.

THE GATHERING OF THE CREATURES

(Enter Noah, Sons, Wives, and Angel bearing two scrolls)

ANGEL: (presents scrolls to Noah) Herein hath God set down all the beasts and winged ones and creeping things which are to be saved. Do you call them to come into the Ark which you have built. (exit Angel)

NOAH: (hands one scroll to Noah's Wife, who puts it in her pocket) Hear, O Creatures, what is the will of God. It pleaseth God that rain shall fall upon the earth for forty days and forty nights to destroy the wickedness thereof. All flesh shall be destroyed, saving only those embarked upon this Ark. Therefore I shall read the names that God hath set down, and do you come two by two, male and female, and go into the Ark.

NOAH (reading from scroll) We call thee to come into the Ark: principally the Phylum Chordata, Subphylum Vertebrata: The Class Mammalia -- with the exception of the Cetaceans, the Sirenians and the Pinnipeds, who can look out for themselves -- The Class Aves, the Class Amphibia, and the Class Reptilia.

NOAH: Present yourselves two by two, male and female, except where not applicable.

Wife, give me that scroll,
I'll begin to call the roll. (takes scroll)

Apples, vinegar, flour and cheese,
Salt and honey, oil and peas.

What may this be? Not beasts, I know.
There is something amiss, I trow.

WIFE:

Silly fool, that's for shopping day.
Don't stand there dumb, put it away.

NOAH:

But Goodwife dear, where is the one
With all the animals, leaving none.

WIFE: (aside)

I knew he would be sure to ask it!

(to Noah)

Perhaps it fell in the wastebasket.

O come on, Husband, not so hot.
How can I tell you, knowing not.

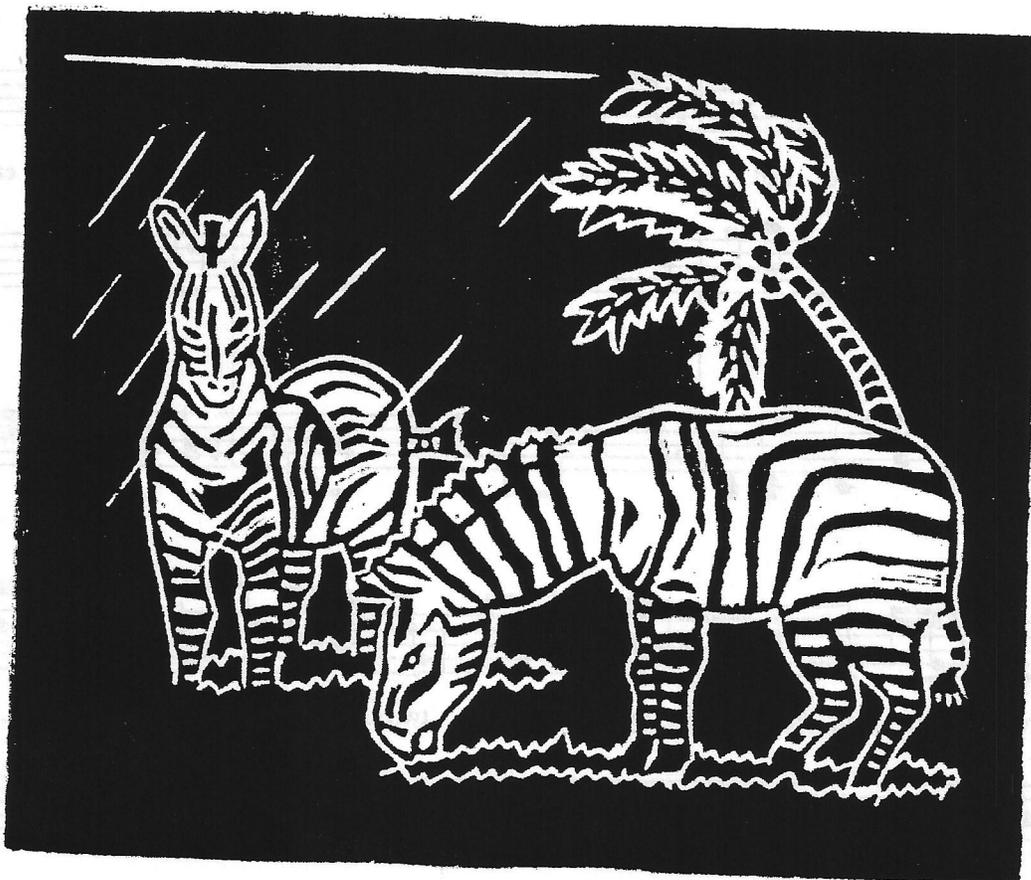

(enter ANGEL with two more scrolls)

ANGEL:

Trouble your wit not, no, not one whit
On these two scrolls are the animals writ.

NOAH:

Well then, Wife, we must begin.
We've got to get these creatures in.

Come Into The Ark

(during this chorus children representing various animals march in two by two and take their places on the Ark. The Unicorn hangs back and does not enter.)
