Transcribed and edited by Lewis Jones

Source: Concerti, 1591. The source comprises eight partbooks, the title pages to which each read:

[PART NAME IN ITALIAN]/CONCERTI/DI IACOPO CORFINI/ORGANISTA DEL DUOMO/DI LUCCA,/CONTINENTI MUSICA DI CHIESA,/A Cinque, Sei, Sette, Otto, Dieci, Dodeci, Quindecim, & a Sedeci Voci./Novamente composti, & dati in luce/[COAT OF ARMS] IN VENETIA/Appresso Ricciardo Amadino./[RULE]./M D XCI. [GATHERING MARK]

Some archaic features of the source orthography have been modernised. The present motet is the final item in the publication.

Editorial method: Original part names, mensuration signs and note durations have been retained. Clefs have been modernised, with originals appearing in prefatory staves. The overall range of each part is given in black stemless notes before the initial mensuration sign. Editorial accidentals appear above the stave, whereas courtesy accidentals appear in parentheses. Ligatures appear as continuous square brackets above the stave, coloration as interrupted square brackets.

Prefatory staves have been typeset using the EMS Serenissima font, courtesy of Elam Rotem at earlymusicsources.com.

Text: All punctuation is editorial, save for the final full stop. Ditto marks in the underlay have been expanded using italics.

Dominator Domine coelorum et terrae Creator aquarum rex universae creaturae, exaudi orationem servorum tuorum.

Critical notes: Comprising source readings not retained in the edition, given in the order bar, part, object, comment.
