Samuel Holyoke, 1803

Tr 5 10

1. My trust is in my heavenly Friend, My hope in thee, my God; Rise, and my helpless life defend From those that seek my blood.

C

2. If I had e'er provoked them first, Or once abused my foe, Then let him tread my life to dust, And lay mine honor low.

3. Let sinners, and their wicked rage, Be humbled to the dust; Shall not the God of truth engage To vindicate the just?

T 8

4. For me their malice digged a pit, But there themselves are cast; My God makes all their mischief light On their own heads at last.

B

15 20 25

1. With insolence and fury they My soul in pieces tear, As hungry lions rend the prey, When no deliverer's near.

C

2. Arise, my God, lift up thy hand, Their pride and power control; Awake to judgment, and command Deliverance for my soul.

3. He knows the heart, he tries the reins, He will defend th' upright; His sharpest arrows he ordains Against the sons of spite.

T 8

4. That cruel, persecuting race Must feel his dreadful sword: Awake, my soul, and praise the grace And justice of the Lord.
