The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ According To Saint John

Chronista

At that time: Jesus went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered.

Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples.

So Judas brought a detachment of soldiers, together with police from the chief priests and the Pharisees, and they came there with lanterns and torches and weapons.

Then Jesus, knowing all that was to happen to him,

came forward and asked them,

"Whom are you looking for?"

They answered,

"Jesus of Nazareth."

"I am he."

22

Chronista

Judas, who betrayed him was standing with them.

23

When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they stepped back and fell to the ground.
Again he asked them,

"Whom are you looking for?"

And they said,

"Jesus of Nazareth."

(or this)
Chronista

Jesus answered,

"I told you that I am he.

So if you are looking for me,

let these men go."

+ Christus

This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken,

"I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me."

Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear.

The slave's name was Malchus. Jesus said to Peter,
"Put your sword back into its sheath.

Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

So the soldiers, their officer, and the Jewish police arrested Jesus and bound him.

First they took him to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year.

Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one person die for the people.

Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus.

Since that disciple was known to the high priest,

He went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest,

But Peter was standing outside at the gate.

So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate,

And brought Peter in. The woman said to Peter,

Synagous (soprano or treble solo ad lib.)

"You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?"
He said, "I am not."

Now the slaves and the police had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing around it and warming themselves.

Peter also was standing with them and warming himself.

Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching.

Jesus answered,
I have spoken openly to the world;

I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple,

where all the Jews come together.

I have said nothing in secret.

Why do you ask me?

Ask those who heard what I said to them;

they know what I said."

When he had said this,

one of the police standing nearby struck Jesus on the face, saying,

"Is that how you answer the high priest?"

Jesus answered.

"If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong.

But if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?"

Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphus the high priest.

Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself.

They asked him,

"You are not also one of his disciples, are you?"
"You are not also so one of his disciples, are you?"
He denied it and said,

"I am not.

One of the slaves of the high priest,

a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked,

"Did I not see you in the garden with him?"

Again Peter denied it,

And at that moment the cock crowed.

Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters.

It was early in the morning.
They themselves did not enter the headquaters,

so as to avoid ritual defilement

and to be able to eat the Passover.

So Pilate went out to them and said,

"What accusation do you bring against this man?"

They answered,

If this man were not a criminal,

we would not have handed him over to you."
"If this man were not a criminal,
we would not have handed him over to you."

"If this man were not a criminal,
we would not have handed him over to you."

"If this man were not a criminal,
we would not have handed him over to you."
Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law."

The Jews replied, "We are not permitted to put any one to death."

(or this)

"We are not permitted to put any one to death."
132 (This was to fulfill what Jesus had said when he indicated the kind of death he was to die.)

133 Then Pilate entered the headquarters again,

135 summoned Jesus, and asked him,

136 "Are you the King of the Jews?"

137 Jesus answered,

138 "Did you ask this on your own,

139 or did others tell you about me?"

140 Pilate replied,
"I am not a Jew, am I?"

your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me.

What have you done?"

Jesus answered,

"My kingdom is not from this world.

If my kingdom were from this world,

my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews.

But as it is, my kingdom is not from here."
Pilate asked him,

"So you are____ a____ king?"

Jesus________ answered,

"You say that I am a____ king.

For this was I born, and for this I came into the world to testify to the____ truth.

Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my____ voice."

Pilate asked him,

What________ is____ truth?
After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, "I find no case against him. But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?"

They shouted in reply, "Not this man, but Barabbas!"
“Not this man but Bar - ab - bas.”

Now Bar - ab - bas was a ban - dit.

Then Pi - late took Je - sus and had him flogged.

And the sol - diers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a pur - ple robe.

They kept coming up to him, saying,

"Hail, King of the Jews."
and striking him on the face.

Pilate went out again and said to them,

"Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him."

So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe.

Pilate said to them,

"Here is the man!"

When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted,
"Cruci-fy him! Crucifi-y him!"

(or this)

"Cruci-fy him! Crucifi-y him!"

"Cruci-fy him! Crucifi-y him!"

"Cruci-fy him! Crucifi-y him!"

"Cruci-fy him! Crucifi-y him!"

Pilate said to them,

"Take him yourselves and crucify him;

I find no case against him."

The Jews answered him.

die because he has claimed to be the Son of God."

Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever.

He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus,

"Where are you from?"

But Jesus gave him no answer.
Pilate therefore said to him,

"Do you refuse to speak to me?"

Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?"

Jesus answered him,

"You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above;

therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin."
From then on Pilate tried to release him,

but the Jews cried out,

"If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor."

When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge's bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in the Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. He said to the Jews, "Here is your King!"

Pilate asked them,

"Shall I crucify your King?"

The chief priests answered,

"We have no king but the emperor,"

(or this)

"We have no king but ______ the emperor."

"We have no king but the emperor."

"We have no king but the emperor."

"We have no king but the emperor."
Then he handed him over to them to be crucified.

So they took Jesus; and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha.

There they crucified him, and with him two others,

one on either side, with Jesus between them.

Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross.

It read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews."

Many of the Jews read this in scripture, 281
because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city;

282
and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.

283
Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate,

284
Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' 285

but, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'
"Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but

'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'

'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'

'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'

'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'
Chronista

Pilate answered.

Synagous

"What I have written, I have written."

Chronista

When the soldiers had crucified Jesus,

they took his clothes and divided them into four parts,

one for each soldier. They also took his tunic;

now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top.

So they said to one another,

Turba

"Let us not tear it,

but cast lots for it to see who will get it."
The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ According To Saint John

(304)

"Let us not tear it,"

(308)

but cast lots for it to see who will get it."
This was to fulfill what the scripture says,

"They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots."

And this is what the soldiers did.

Meanwhile standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister,

Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.

When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her,

He said to his mother,

"Woman, here is your son."

Then he said to the disciple.

"Here is your mother."

And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home.

After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished,

he said (in order to fulfill the scripture),

"I am thirsty."

A jar of sour wine was standing there.
So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth.

When Jesus had received the wine, he said,

"It is finished.

Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

(All kneel down and pray silently for the space of a Pater and an Ave)

Since it was the Day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross during the sabbath, e specially because that sabbath was a day of great solemnity.

So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken.

And the bodies removed.

Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him.

But when they came to Jesus...
and saw that he was already dead,

they did not break his legs.

In stead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out.

(He who saw it has testified so that you also may believe.

His testimony is true,

and he knows that he tells the truth.)
These things occurred so that scripture might be fulfilled,

"None of his bones shall be broken.

And another passage of scripture says,

"They will look on the one whom they have pierced."

After these things,

Joseph of Arimathaea,
who was a disciple of Jesus,

though a secret one because of his fear of the Jews, asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus.

Pilate gave him permission;

so he came and removed his body.

Nicodemus, who had first come to Jesus by night,

also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds.

They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, according to the burial custom of the Jews.

Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid.

And so, because it was the Jewish Day of Preparation, and the tomb was nearby,

they laid Jesus there.
