Liturgical Function

This is one of four alternatim settings that White composed of the hymn Christe qui lux es, which, in the Latin services of his youth, was sung at Compline from the first Sunday in Lent until Passion Sunday. It is presented here for liturgical performance with plainsong verses added from a Sarum hymnal. However, it is not certain that White envisaged performance in this way. For one thing, it is probable that, in the liturgy, the choral verses of Tudor hymn settings alternated not with plainsong, but with organ verses. For another, it is possible that White wrote his settings during Elizabeth's reign for secular recreation. Such performances would not have included the plainsong verses. However, it is perhaps conceivable that such performances might occasionally have emulated the old tradition by alternating the vocal verses with verses played on a keyboard instrument.

Editorial Conventions

The original clef, staff signature, mensuration symbol and first note of each part are shown on the prefatory staves at the beginning.

Editorial accidentals are placed above the notes concerned and remain operative throughout the bar.

The sign  denotes a ligature.

Repeat signs in the underlay have been tacitly expanded.

Translation

O Christ, who is light and day,
you drive away the darkness of night;
you are believed to be the light of light, proclaiming blessed light.

We beseech you, holy Lord,
to defend us this night;
may our rest be in you,
grant us a peaceful night.

Let not unwholesome dreams seize us,
nor the enemy snatch us away,
nor the flesh, yielding to him,
make us guilty in your sight.

While our eyes sleep,
may our hearts always stay watchful to you;
may your right hand protect your loving servants.

O our defender, look upon us,
restrain those who plot against us;
guide your servants
whom you have redeemed with your blood.

Be mindful of us, O Lord,
burdened with a body;
you who are the defender of the soul,
be present with us, O Lord.

Glory be to God the Father,
and to his only Son,
with the Holy Spirit,
both now and for ever.
Amen.

Notes on the Readings of the Sources

In the list of references below, each reference to a bar or group of bars is separated by an oblique stroke, references to different voices in the same bar by a semicolon and multiple references to the same voice by a comma. The order within each entry is: 1) bar number(s); 2) abbreviated voice name(s); 3) source(s); 4) reading of the source(s). The readings are expressed in the pitches and note values of the edition, with the pitches in capital letters, preceded by a number where necessary, e.g. <sup>2</sup>B = 2nd note B in the bar. The lute entabulations in F, G and H have not been collated for this edition.
