O sacrum convivium

Edited by Simon Biazeck

Dominique Phinot
(c. 1510–c. 1556)

The musical score consists of eight staves, each representing a different voice part. The voices are arranged vertically from top to bottom as follows: Cantus Primus, Altus Primus, Tenor Primus, Bassus Primus, Cantus Secundus, Altus Secundus, Tenor Secundus, and Bassus Secundus. The music is written in common time with a treble clef. The lyrics "O sacrum convivium" are repeated at the beginning of each section of the score. The notation includes various note heads (circles, squares, triangles) and rests, with some notes connected by horizontal lines. The bassus primus staff shows a prominent bassoon-like sound with square note heads. The altus secundus staff features a melodic line with a sharp sign indicating a change in key.

*Editorial procedure:*Originally notated in the following clefs:

Original pitch, note-values and mensuration sign retained. Barlines, cue-size accidentals within the staves and accidentals in square brackets above the staves are editorial; the latter serving, in part, to reinforce the editor's approach to musica ficta—the modern conception of performers' accidentals. Ligatures are indicated by a horizontally placed square bracket and coloration by thick corner brackets. Text prompted by the scribe is in italic whilst that within square brackets is entirely editorial.

Translation:

*O sacred feast
in which we share in Christ,
we recall the memory of His passion,
our minds are filled with grace,
and we receive the pledge of glory still to come.
Alleluia.*

Antiphon to the Magnificat at 2nd Vespers on the feast of Corpus Christi.
Based on 1 Cor. 11:26.
