

Richmond

Tr. 5 10
1. Ere God had built the moun-tains, Or raised the fruit-ful hills; Be-fore he filled the fountains That
2. When, like a tent to dwell in, He spread the skies a-broad; And swathed a-bout the swel-ling Of

C.

T. 15 20 25
3. Thus wis-dom's words dis-co-ver Thy glo-ry and thy grace, Thou ev-er-las-ting lo-ver Of
4. And could thou be de-ligh-ted With crea-tures such as we! Who when we saw thee, sligh-ted And

B.

Tr. 30 35
feed the run-ning rills; In me. for ev-er-las-ting, The won-der-ful I AM, Found pleasures o-cean's migh-ty flood; He wrought by weight and mea-sure, And I was with him then, My-self the

C.

T. our un-wor-thy race! Thy gra-cious eye sur-veyed us Ere stars were seen a-bove; In wis-dom nailed thee to a tree? Un-fath-om-a-ble won-der, And my-ste-ry di-vine! The voice that

B.

Tr. ne-ver wast-ing, And wis-dom is my name, And wis-dom is my name.
Fa-ther's plea-sure, And mine, the sons of men, And mine, the sons of men.

C.

T. thou hast made us, And died for us in love, And died for us in love.
speaks in thun-der Says, Sin-ner, I am thine! Says, sin-ner, I am thine!

B.

Edited by B. C. Johnston, 2020

1. Measure 2, Counter: C#-D changed to F#-A.
2. Measure 3, Treble: A-B-A changed to A-B-C.