

Wallingsford

Transcribed from Benham's Federal Harmony, 1793.

C Major Asahel Benham, 1790

Tr.  1. O praise — ye the Lord; pre-pare a new song, And let — all his saints in full con - cert join;
 2. Be joy - ful, ye saints, sustained by his might, And let — your glad songs awake with each morn;

C.  1. O praise — ye the Lord; pre-pare a new song, And let — all his saints in full con - cert join;
 2. Be joy - ful, ye saints, sustained by his might, And let — your glad songs awake with each morn;

T.  8 1. O praise — ye the Lord; pre-pare a new song, And let — all his saints in full con - cert join; With
 2. Be joy - ful, ye saints, sustained by his might, And let — your glad songs awake with each morn; For

B.  1. With voi - ces u -
 2. For those who o -

Tr.  15 20 1. With voices united the anthem prolong; And show forth his ho - nors in mu - - sic di - vine.
 2. For those who obey him are still his deight; His hand with sal - va - tion the meek — will a - dorn.

C.  1. With voi - ces u - ni - ted the anthem pro - long; — And show forth his ho - nors in mu - - sic di - vine.
 2. For those who o - bey him are still his de - light; — His hand with sal - va - tion the meek — will a - dorn.

T.  8 1. voi - ces u - ni - ted the anthem pro - long, the anthem prolong; And show forth his ho - nors in mu - - sic di - vine.
 2. those who o - bey him are still his de - light; are still his delight; His hand with sal - va - tion the meek — will a - dorn.

B.  1. - ni - ted the anthem pro - long, — And show forth his ho - nors in mu - - sic di - vine.
 2. - bey him are still his de - light; — His hand with sal - va - tion the meek — will a - dorn.