1. Pastime with good company— I love, and shall until I die.

Grudge who lust but deny, so God be pleas'd thus live will I. For my pastance, hunt, sing, and dance, my heart is set all goodly sport, for my comfort, who shall me let?

2. Youth must have some dalliance, of good or ill some pastance.

Company me thinks then best, all thoughts and fancies to digest. For Idleness is chief mistress of vices all, then

who can say but mirth and play is best of all.

who can say but mirth and play is best of all.
3. Company with honesty is virtue, vices to flee.

Company is good and ill, but ev'ry man hath his free will. The best ensue, the worst eschew, my mind shall be virtue to use, vice to refuse, thus shall I use me.
