

Ding dong bell

Round

William Stonard (c1585-1630)

Ding, ding, ding dong bell, ding, ding, ding, ding dong bell. Oh

5
cru - el death that stopped the breath of him I loved so well. A - Ding, ding, ding dong bell, ding, ding, ding, ding dong bell. Oh

9
lack and well a - way 'tis a hea - vy day that e - ver_ us be - fell. Then for his sake some or - der let us take that cru - el death that stopped the breath of him I loved so well. A - lack and well a - way 'tis a hea - vy day that Ding, ding, ding dong bell, ding, ding, ding, ding dong bell. Oh cru - el death that stopped the breath of Ding, ding, ding dong bell, ding,

15

we may ring his knell. Ding dong, Ding, ding, ding dong bell, ding, ding, ding, ding dong bell. Oh e - ver_ us be - fell. Then for his sake some or - der let us take that we may ring his knell. Ding dong, him I loved so well. A - lack and well a - way 'tis a hea - vy day that e - ver_ us be - fell. Then ding, ding, ding dong bell. Oh cru - el death that stopped the breath of him I loved so well. A - cru - el death that stopped the breath of him I loved so well. A - Ding, ding, ding dong bell, ding, ding, ding, ding dong bell. Oh for his sake some or - der let us take that we may ring his knell. Ding dong, lack and well a - way 'tis a hea - vy day that e - ver_ us be - fell. Then

21

25

Continue ad lib.

lack and well a - way 'tis a hea - vy day that e - ver_ us be - fell.
 cru - el death that stopped the breath of him I loved so well.
 Ding, ding, ding dong bell, ding, ding, ding, ding dong bell.
 for his sake some or - der let us take that we may ring his knell.