

When the crimson sun had set

Arranged by Edgar Pettman(1866-1943)

Very smoothly

pp

Soprano

When the crim - son sun had set Now be - hind the Win - 'try sea.
Shep - herds watch - ing by their fold On the crisp and hoar - y plain,

pp

Bass

5

S.

On the bright and cold mid - night Burst a sound of heaven - ly glee;
In the sky, bright hosts es - py, Sing - ing in a glad - some train,

B.

9

S.

f

Glor - - - i - a, In ex - cei - sis De - o, — Glor -

B.

f

16

S.

- - - i - a, In ex - cel - sis De - o.

B.

3. Where the manger crib is laid
In the city fair and free,
Hand in hand the shepherd band
Worship Christ on bended knee.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.

4. Join with us in welcome song,
Ye who in Christ's home abide,
Sing the love of God above
Manifest at this glad tide.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.